

Trusted Advisory Network

For organisations focused on enhancing their business performance through customer service

You have a strategy in place for customer service, but there are gaps that you need to address, or challenges around implementation. Regardless of which industry you operate in, your customers are increasingly complex and demanding. With the pressures of technology, regulations, competition and the need for sustainability and authenticity – now more than ever – your customers need to be at the heart of everything you do.

We help you with improving and implementing your customer service strategy and plans to increase your business performance and deliver higher levels of productivity and in the private sector, profitability.

We help you create a seamless experience that brings all the pieces together and aligns activity with the strategic priorities emanating from the Boardroom.

With our Trusted Advisory Network membership, we will work with you as a 'Critical Friend.' Acting at a strategic and operational level to ensure that customer service plays a genuine part in delivering greater performance.

In a world where trust and reputation is increasingly important, your Institute acts as an independent authority to support and guide you.

Trusted Advisory Network Membership Overview

Client Relationship Director

Support, guidance and advice from a 'critical friend', who is:

- An expert in customer service, your dedicated Client Relationship Director will support and advise you in all areas of customer service to drive your organisation strategy to the next level
- Dedicated to you and your organisation, their knowledge, expertise and insight will help link the business's strategic goals to your customers' expectations, ensuring that every part of the organisation understands what it has to deliver - and how - to build loyalty and recommendation
- On hand to ensure you make the most of your membership, using the right tools and services to deliver tangible business benefits and demonstrate positive Return on Investment (ROI) through membership and customer service

UK Customer Satisfaction Index

As a member of The Institute of Customer Service, you will receive and have access to the UK Customer Satisfaction Index (UKCSI) – published twice a year.

- You will also receive two sector reports of your choice from the bi-annual UKCSI publications with detailed analysis across specific business sectors
- Use the insight to identify emerging and long-term trends in customer experience - the UKCSI highlights the characteristics and differentiators of the highest performing organisations as well as key areas for improvement

Breakthrough Research

- Each year The Institute publishes breakthrough research on key topics of vital interest for CEOs, customer experience leaders and professionals. These publications are free to you as a member, offering insight into the latest customer service strategies and challenges
- Access to Insight Consultancy - a team of highly experienced consultants and researchers providing strategic insight services. They can work with you to deliver a deep understanding of what matters to your customers, map and measure your customer experience and turn insight into practical action to improve customer satisfaction and business performance

Accreditation

The Institute offers nationally recognised, independent accreditations. As a member you are eligible to apply for accreditation at any point in your membership period:

ServiceMark - demonstrates your commitment and achievement in customer service.

- Available to members only, ServiceMark is a national standard, independently recognising an organisation's commitment to, and achievement of customer service excellence and its commitment to upholding those standards

TrainingMark – recognises the quality of your internal customer service training programme.

- TrainingMark is an accreditation for your own in-house customer service training programme - demonstrating that your training course meets national standards for customer service, as independently recognised by The Institute of Customer Service

Approved Centre accreditation – for those who demonstrate running The Institute’s Professional Qualifications programme consistently and to required standards

- Organisations can apply for Approved Centre accreditation that have demonstrated they are operating The Institute’s professional qualifications framework in accordance with our standards and quality assurance requirements.

Benchmarking and Measurement

Identify areas to improve, drawing on views of customers and employees to create action plans to support your goals, measure impact and drive your strategy. Through your membership you have access to our independent benchmarking surveys to help you measure customer satisfaction and your employees’ engagement with your service strategy.

- Business Benchmarking assesses your performance in and outside your sector to allow you to identify areas for improvement and build your service strategy
- ServCheck measures your employees’ connection and engagement with your strategy, culture, people and processes
- Objectively measure service performance over time with up to three surveys per annum
- As a TAN member, you will also be able to reach your customers and employees across the world through our international survey capabilities

People Development

Development programmes for your people to build customer skills, knowledge and behaviours to achieve your organisation’s service goals and improve customer satisfaction.

- The Institute’s Professional Qualifications offer an exclusive framework of customer service learning - drawing on examples and evidence of delivering tangible benefits for your customers, organisation and employees
- Our Customer Service Management Qualification – a 12 month programme to develop your organisational leaders in ServiceManagement or Strategy. Individual membership at Management level is available to those who successfully complete the qualification
- You can access The Institute’s portfolio of short training courses designed to develop capabilities, improve service performance and engagement

- Individual Membership is available at the relevant level through successful completion of any of our training and qualifications (Application fees apply)
- As a member, you can also access The Institute Academy for expert delivery and in some cases, for your in-house trainers to be trained or approved to deliver our courses.

Knowledge, Sharing and Networking

As a Trusted Advisory member, you will be invited to our TAN meetings to network and share best practice with other members throughout the year, from across all sectors.

You will also be invited to Institute events throughout the year; workshops and webinars on subjects such as interpreting research and insight, measuring return on investment, people development and employee retention, all tailored to the challenges facing organisations today.
